Fancy Dress Competition

“Clothes make a statement; Costumes tell a story”

Date: October 26, 2024

Askari Universal School organized an engaging Fancy Dress Competition for pre-primary students on October 26, 2024. The event was met with immense enthusiasm, as the young participants showcased a variety of creative and colourful characters. Each child's excitement and joy were evident as they confidently portrayed characters from popular stories, professions, and cultural themes.

Parents were also actively involved, assisting their children with costumes and props, and many joined in the celebration, adding to the festive atmosphere. The school courtyard was transformed into a lively stage as the tiny tots expressed themselves through their unique costumes, drawing cheerful applause from teachers, peers, and parents alike.

The competition was more than just an entertaining event; it proved valuable for the students' overall development, helping boost their self-confidence and creativity.
