Seminar on Road Safety at Askari Universal School

Date: 24th January 2025

Accidents don't happen; they are caused.

A seminar on road safety was organized at Askari Universal School on 24th January 2025 by officials from the Police Department who had come from Palanpur. The event aimed to raise awareness about road safety measures and promote good riding and driving habits among students.

The seminar was attended by students of classes 6 to 8, who showed great enthusiasm and actively participated in the session. The officials from the Police Department delivered informative lectures, focusing on essential road safety guidelines such as the importance of wearing helmets and seat belts, adherence to traffic signals, and the dangers of reckless driving.

The seminar proved to be an enlightening experience, equipping the students with practical knowledge to ensure their safety and the safety of others on the road. The school management expressed gratitude to the Police Department for conducting this impactful session and emphasized the importance of organizing more such events in the future.

The initiative successfully instilled a sense of responsibility and awareness among young learners, contributing to the broader goal of fostering safer roads for all.
